

itsyourmove.com

PPSIG FALL MEETING – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 2008

RADISSON HOTEL GATEWAY, SEA-TAC AIRPORT
18118 International Blvd., Seattle, Washington, 98188

Call the Radisson directly for overnight accommodations: 206-219-6731

E-mail: www.radisson.com/seattlewa_seatac

AGENDA

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| 8:00 to 9:00 AM | Registration, Continental Breakfast |
| 9:00 to 12:15 PM | Education Session: “Documentation: Writing for Dollars.”
Presented by Bob Thomas, PT* : This is a comprehensive overview and comparison of the various rules and standards for documentation, between the Washington Licensing Board Rules, Medicare Rules, L& I rules, APTA guidelines and other third party payors. Learn how to document to insure payment and pass audits. |
| 12:15 to 1:15 PM | Lunch (included with registration), PPSIG business meeting and Media Campaign Update |
| 1:15 to 2:30 PM | Education Session: “Improving Your Cash Flow.” Presented by Lisa Swan of Transworld Systems, Inc.* You’ll learn effective new strategies to maximize your payment prospects at every step – from the moment a new patient walks in the door until the account receivable is closed. |
| 2:30 to 2:45 PM | Break |
| 2:45 to 4:00 PM | Third Party Payor Contracting in Today’s Marketplace: “Know when to hold ‘em, Know when to fold ‘em.” Presented by Diana Godwin, Attorney and PPSIG Exec. Director* |

- Bob Thomas is president of Infinity Rehab. He recently completed a monograph on Medicare reimbursement for APTA and has lectured extensively on reimbursement documentation issues. Thomas is an adjunct professor at Pacific University teaching 2 courses in the PT doctoral program on reimbursement documentation and management.
- Lisa Swan is a senior consultant with Transworld Systems. She specializes in working with medical practices to create customized A/R policies and implementation procedures to increase cash flow and cut down on overhead.
- Diana Godwin is an attorney in private practice. She has specialized in representing the business, regulatory and professional interests of private practice physical therapy clinics for over 25 years. She represents Oregon Physical Therapists in Independent Practice (OPTIP), a trade association of 125 clinics in Oregon and began serving as PPSIG executive director and legal counsel in April of 2008.